ABOUT THE STATE

During the month of February there were 23 cases of contagious or infec-tious diseases reported to the Rutland city health officer. The cases reported were divided as follows: Chickenpox, 9; erysipelas, 5; scarlet fever, 4; diphtheri 3; and measles, 2.

The annual village meeting was held at Lyndonville Tuesday evening. village debt has been reduced about $5,000. The auditors recommended the same tax as last year of 50 cents. The officers elected were practically the same as last year and $300 was approristed for outdoor band concerts.

Miss Christine Persons of North Adams, Mass., is laid up with serious injuries as the result of being thrown against the wall during "all hand 'round" in a kitchen dance being held Saturday evening in Stamford. Her left hip is dislocated, one ankle astverely sprained and ligaments torn, and ahe suffered a concussion of the brain, as the result of the vigor of the dancers. She remained unconscious for some
